

Two Sides of Love

Scene 1:

The scene is plotted at the time when there was not so much popularity of mobile phones and internet. And at the place of Varanasi.

Two friends used to study together in a school named "Gyan Vidya Niketan". Their name was Sumit and Shanvi. Shanvi loved Sumit. She pursues him. But, Sumit had no feelings for her in that way. He only feels Shanvi as a good friend. So he refuses her proposal. She tries to convince him a lot. But he tries to escape from the situation. Both of them return home that day.

Next day, Shanvi didn't come to school. Sumit thought probably she would have some work. But it continues for some more days. Sumit felt very bad. He thought he had lost a friend. And tried to search for her. He didn't know her address. But from class register, he finds her details. Somehow he manages to reach her location. He knocks the door. The landlord informed him that Shanvi's father got transferred in Lucknow. So their family left the house and got settled in Lucknow. Sumit felt so depressed and sad.

(Sumit continues his search for Shanvi)

Scene 2:

It's been 8 years now. Sumit had not forgot Shanvi. Whenever he is too much alone, he still remembers her. Internet and social media culture had already evolved.

(PS: Thanks to JIO)

Sumit often tries to search for Shanvi on Social Media. But he could not find her. He almost lost his hope that he will again find her in the future.

Scene 3:

One day, Sumit had to go to Kharagpur to study. He had booked his flight for 8am. He got late to reach the Airport and missed his flight.

The Ticket Counter gave him another ticket. He imprecated his fate. And sat in the waiting area. While he was sitting there a girl suddenly came and sat beside her. They both saw each other and it didn't took a moment for both of them to realize that who they are. They both hugged each other with tears in their eyes. None of them spoke a single word for few moments. Just hugged, hugged and hugged sobbing.

All the crowd was seeing them. None of them knew their story but they can see love in their eyes. A love that existed since childhood, a love that took several years to reunite. After few minutes, Sumit asks Shanvi. In a emotional tone, where was she from past years. He tells him the story of his side. How he used to remember her.

Shanvi explains him.

The day her father got transferred, while she was going to Lucknow, their family got accident and she lost her family. Then she was brought up in a poorly manner in an orphanage. She tells him that she also used to think about her and shows him his paintings that she had made till now. Every year as Sumit grew the exact face of Sumit was there.

After talking a little they got to know that both of them has the same destination that was IIT KHARAGPUR. They are now studying together there and still loves each other too much.
